may 26-1928 with the following citation.

"For gallantry and intrepidity above and beyond the call of duty in action with the enemy during the operations against the Hindenburg Line east of Ronnoy, France, Sept. 29-1918. Finding the advance of his organization held up by a withering enemy machine gun fire, he volunteered to go forward. With utter disregard of his own personal danger, accompanied by another soldier, Pvt Valente rushed forward through an intense machine-gun fire directly upon the enemy nest, killing two and capturing five of the enemy and silencing that gun. Discovering another machine-gun nest close by, which was pouring a deadly fire on the American forces preventing their advance, Pvt Valente and his companion charged upon this strong point, killing the gunner and putting this machine gun out of action. With out hesitation they jumped into the enemy's trench, killed two and captured 16 German soldiers. Pvt Valente was later wounded and sent to the rear."

wounded officer of the 108 Infantry. An enemy machine gun was trained on these stretcher bearers, one of whom fell wounded.
In the face of this fire, this soldier immediately jumped out of the trench, taking one end of the stretcher, threw himself with the wounded officer into the trench but by so doing received a machine gun burst, which finally was the cause of his leg having to be amputated.
